v.	:	PRELIMINARY
	:	ORDER OF FORFEITURE
ANTHONY JOSEPH FRITZINGER	:

WHEREAS, the above-named defendant has been found guilty by a jury verdict as to Counts One, Two, Three, Four, Five, Six, Seven, Eight, Nine, Ten, Eleven, and Twelve of the Second Superseding Criminal Indictment, charging the defendant with offenses in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2422(b) (Counts One, Three, Five, and Seven), 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251(a) and (e) (Counts Two, Four, Six, Eight, and Nine, 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(4)(B) (Count Ten), and 18 U.S.C. §§ 1952(a)(3) (Counts Eleven and Twelve);

AND WHEREAS, the government has filed a motion for entry of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, showing unto the court: that each item of property contains a visual depiction, which was produced, transported, mailed, shipped, or received in violation of Title 18, Chapter 110 of the United States Code, constitutes or is traceable to gross profits or other proceeds obtained from the child pornography or sexual exploitation offense(s) to which the defendant has been found guilty, and/or was used or intended to be used to commit or to promote the commission of such offense or is traceable to such property, and is therefore subject to forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253(a); that each item of property constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to the offense(s) constituting “specified unlawful activity” to which the defendant has been found guilty, and is thereby subject to forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C);

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the jury's verdict, the points and authorities in the government's motion, and all of the evidence of record in this case, the court FINDS as fact and CONCLUDES as a matter of law that there is a nexus between each item of property listed below and the offense(s) to which the defendant has pleaded guilty, and that the defendant (or any combination of defendants in this case) has or had an interest in the property to be forfeited, otherwise maintain custody and control of the property, whether held by the defendant or by a third-party. Any person who knowingly destroys, damages, wastes, disposes of, transfers, or otherwise takes any action with respect to the property, or attempts to do so, for the purpose of preventing or impairing the Government's lawful authority to take such property into its custody or control or to continue holding such property under its lawful custody and control, may be subject to criminal prosecution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2232(a).

3. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. 5. Any person other than the above-named defendant, having or claiming any legal interest in the subject property must, within 30 days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court to adjudicate the validity of the asserted interest pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2). The petition must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth: the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject property; the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property; any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim; and the relief sought. The petition may be hand-delivered to the Clerk at any federal courthouse within the Eastern District of North Carolina or mailed to the following address:

6. If one or more timely petitions are received by the court, the court will enter a separate scheduling order governing the conduct of any forfeiture ancillary proceedings under Fed. R. Crim. Following the Court's disposition of all timely filed petitions, a Final Order of Forfeiture that amends this Order as necessary to account for any third-party rights shall be entered pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6). The receipt of a petition as to one or more specific items of property shall not delay this Order of Forfeiture from becoming final, in accordance with the following paragraph, as to any remaining property to which no petition has been filed.

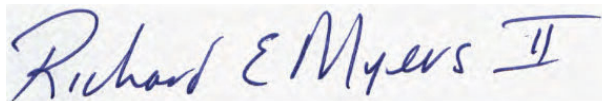

7. If no third party files a timely petition, or if this court denies and/or dismisses all third party petitions timely filed, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2), and the United States shall dispose of the property according to law, including without limitation liquidation by sale or any other commercially feasible means, destruction, and/or retention or transfer of an asset for official use. The United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(7).
